I am naught with - out my Sa - vior; I shall live to give Him laud.
In the days of my first les - sons, I was known to Him by name,
Dimmed on earth my re - col - lec - tion, I for - got the Sa - vior's name,
Send me, Lord, and I shall serve Thee; all my heart I give to Thee,
O Lord, I have trus - ted in Thee; I will trust in Thee for - e'er.

Taste of mer - cy I shall sa - vor as I grow to know my God.
Cho - sen by di - vine e - lec - tion ere the heav'n and earth were framed.
But a voice of kind cor - rec - tion brought me to my knees a - gain.
E'en my will sur - ren - dered to Thee, giv'n in all hu - mi - li - ty.
In the arm of flesh un - wor - thy is there glo - ry? No, not e'er.

Life e - ter - nal is Thy pro - mise; life with Thee is my de - sire.
Wal - king in His light, He taught me; Him I fol - lowed e - v'ry hour.
Like a stream of li - ving wa - ter, O the sweet fa - mi - liar sound!
Then, O rock of my sal - va - tion, guide me with Thy gen - tle hand;
E'er as - cends my voice in prai - ses un - to Thee, my I - ron rod.

Marked the path is, keep me on it; cleanse, re - fine me in Thy fire.
 "Build my king - dom," He be - sought me, "Till I come in glo - ry and pow'r."
 Christ the son, Sal - va - tion's Fa - ther, broke the chains which held me bound.
 Grant my soul sweet ju - bi - la - tion as I serve my fel - low man.
 Praise be Thine, O Rock of A - ges; hail the e - ver - las - ting God!
