

Like Sunlight Gleams Thy Grace, O Lord

David C. Macfarlane

1

Like sun - light gleams thy grace, O Lord; The
As we as - cend life's sto - ny path, We Ye stray - ing souls who fear and hide, Whose We find His grace by works of faith; Let 4 pow'r by which all li - ving grow. It shines on all and look to heav'n and soft - ly pray For strength to do thy works are veiled by dark of night, Will you re - ject that righ - teous deeds fill heart and home! That in us all might thus af - fords That all might reap the things they bid - den task; We know thou wilt pro - vide a Son who shines? Come for - ward and be led by see His face And glo - ri - fy the Fa - ther's

7

9

sow. All life and la - bor it sus - tains And way. Though we are weak, help us en - dure And Light! His out - stretched hand is un - to all Who throne. Pre - cept on pre - cept, grace for grace, The 12

man's di - vi - ni - ty un - chains.
 make our e - xal - ta - tion sure.
 hear his voice and heed his call.
 Sa - vior's path our steps re - trace un - chains.